Chris Arvin and Monique Lafia, Lafia/Arvin

Located: Santa Monica Established: 1997

Known for: Never passing any of the design decisions onto an associate—the principals handle everything.

Design pet peeve: “A lot of designers like to reuse the same color palette and the same few fabrics over and over again in their projects—nothing looks original. If you’re friends with another of our clients, you don’t have to worry about them having a home that looks exactly like yours.” —CHRIS ARVIN
